No "L" or "P" plate drivers are permitted to transport Woodvale Youth passengers unless specifically organised with parental consent as a last resort option. Woodvale Youth Leaders and Woodvale Baptist Church are not responsible for any damage or loss of any articles brought to Woodvale Youth. Before 6:30pm and after 9:00pm (unless a different event time is stated in the program), the parents/legal caregivers are responsible for the welfare of their children.

We ask that parents/caregivers come into the church to drop off and collect their children, in order to avoid anyone being injured or going missing when entering the car park to find you (unless prearranged with Woodvale Youth Leaders).

I understand and accept the above points and give permission for my child to travel in Private Vehicles during Woodvale Youth activities.

5. Information Sharing

Woodvale Youth nights are often recorded through photos or videos. If you or your child does not wish to have their photo taken during youth activities, it is your responsibility to ensure that the leaders are aware of this. Woodvale Youth have a page on the church website and a private group within Facebook and Instagram. It is our hope to put some photos/videos of what we do at Woodvale Youth on these sites and other promotional material to promote who we are and what we do, so we are seeking permission from you to allow these photos/videos that may contain your child. Please fill out the area below if you are willing for us to do so. On the first night of Term 1, Woodvale Leaders will take a photo of your child that will be attached to this document and kept on our Woodvale Youth Database.

I give permission for photos/videos containing my child to be published on the church website and other youth related youth group pages (i.e. Facebook private group) on the internet. I give consent for my child's image (photographic, print and film material) to be used by Woodvale Baptist Church and its ministries for promotional use within the church. I understand that reproductions of my child/children's image may be made at the discretion of the church.
