GENERAL EVENTS

Safe Church Terms and Conditions

Through registration you are consenting to WBC collecting your personal information. The purpose of collecting this information is to enable us to carry out our duty of care.

Health information is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Policy under the Privacy Act. The only reason we may ask for this is to fulfill our duty of care.

We will not disclose your personal information to third parties without your consent. By registering in this event, you can give or not give your consent for photographs and video footage to be taken during the event which may include your image and voice. We will respect your wish and ensure no photo/video is to be taken of you. If you do give consent, you also give your permission for WBC to use such recorded media in promoting similar future events through print or online.

It is also a legal requirement that we retain your personal and any family information you provide in our secure database to meet Safe Church and legislative requirements.

Your personal information is treated confidentially, collected, stored, used, disclosed, and destroyed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and our privacy policy, which sets out the way in which WBC complies with the Act.

On behalf of Woodvale Baptist Church, we thank you for your participation in this event and for your understanding.
